Boyle Amateur Hour Popular; Interested Patrons Crowd Theatre

BOYLE — The Amateur Hour, last held in Boyle two years ago, was presented in the Dreamland Theatre, on March 19.

The crowd began to line up shortly after 7:00 p.m. and ten minutes after the 7:30 p.m. doors opened the theatre's 250 seats were completely filled. Every inch of space was occupied—a number of people had to stand and a large number were turned away.

Among the 28 participants, chosen winners by judges O. J. Mikalonis, Mrs. Wilt and Rev. Hart were: vocal solo, first, Lidia Zukowski, from South America who has been a resident of Boyle since her arrival in Alberta a few months ago; second, Miss Julienna Kolach, Grassland. Group singing, first, Sneed sisters from Amber Valley. Instrumental duet, first, Suzanne Semeniuk and Joan Alexander, Boyle; second, Dave Bilous and Stanley Tremblay, Boyle. Instrumental solo, Gilbert Ellefson.

Patricia Pysyk of Donatville and Sharon Andruski, youngest contestants, received $1.00 each. Other contestants were: vocal solos, Pearlie Barore, Harry Pelsma, Bobby Lechky, Audrey Cassidy, Raymond Kolach, Ruth Johnston, Marlene Haugen, Evelyn Wittaker and Fred Pakulitz. Recitation, Wilfred Barroniok; piano solos, Frances Pelma and Carolyn Andruski; duets, Alice Chamzuk and Elaine Plamondon, Pauline and Paul Kulmatiski, Stella Shyian and Nancy Kmech; intrumental duet, Stanley and Rod Tremblay, Rod Tremblay and Gilbert Ellefson. Two other soloists were Rod Tremblay and Paul Kulmatiski.

The evening was climaxed with a play by the grade 9 class, the subject, King's English.

Consolation For 84 If Election Lost

OTTAWA (BUP)—For 84 members of the last parliament, a defeat March 31 would bring a monthly pay-cheque of $250 for the rest of their lives.

They are members who served through at least three parliaments, thus qualifying for the maximum $3,000 annual pension.

The members pay six per cent of their $8,000 sessional indemnity each year into the commons' retirement fund. The pension plan was set up in 1952.

Members with less than three full parliaments to their credit would also receive a pension if not reelected. Their pensions amount to 75 per cent of their total contributions to the fund and the payments continue for life.

For 49 members the opportunity to draw full pension would depend on their re-election as they first entered the house of commons in 1953—two parliaments ago.

The effects of last year's Conservative victory can be noted in the pension figures. Before the June 10 election there were 72 two-parliament men compared to this year's 49, the result of an influx of new Tory members. The number of persons eligible for full pension was cut from 100 to 84 in the same period.

The retirement of some members this year contributed to the drop. The pensioners include former Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, a veteran of four parliaments, CCF'er Victor Quelch and 85-year-old Rev. Dan McIvor, both six-parliament men, and Joe Dechene, the lone Liberal from Alberta in the last house who held the northern seat of Athabasca through five terms.

Killed In Leap From Car Seconds Before Impact; Mishap Injures 6

A Lac la Biche girl who leaped from a car seconds before colliding with another car was killed and six others sent to hospital, in a head-on collision Sunday near Lac la Biche Mission.

Dead is Eleanor Cardinal, 18, Lac la Biche. Police say she was a passenger in a car driven by Victor Dziwenka, 22, of St. Michael, who was going to Lac la Biche on Highway 46 about 4:00 p.m. Sunday.

In hospital at Lac la Biche is the driver of the car with a dislocated hip and a badly lacerated face, Roy Warren of Hylo with a broken leg and Elsie Cardinal, the dead girl's sister, suffering from shock.

Critically injured and unconscious when picked up was the driver of the other car Mickey Moghrabi, 23, who was taken to an Edmonton hospital. Mrs. Anita Moghrabi and another passenger are in Lac la Biche hospital. Mrs. Moghrabi with a broken leg and Mike Chadi, 39, with slight injuries.

Police said investigations are continuing to discover the cause of the head-on crash on the gravelled highway about 120 miles northeast of Edmonton. Both cars were demolished.

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT GRANTS

COUNTIES AND MUNICIPAL DISTRICTS

Alberta's counties and municipal districts must provide services for residents. Money to provide these services is derived mainly from two sources — municipal taxes and Provincial Government Grants.

In 1956 the municipal levy in counties and municipal districts was $24,282,630.37 which, added to the Provincial Government Grant of $27,205,533.37 equalled a total of $51,488,164.23.

Provincial Government municipal grants are paid directly to the counties and municipal districts concerned.

School Grants are paid directly to the School Districts and Divisions and Hospital Grants are paid to hospital authorities.

Total Grants and Taxes	100%	$51,488,164.23
Total Taxes	47.16%	$24,282,630.86
School Grants	27.44%	$14,139,049.23
Municipal Grants	18.87%	$ 9,716,102.30
Hospital Grants	6.52%	$ 3,358,581.84

* To express these grants in terms of their assistance to a municipality, school grants are pro-rated on an assessment basis. Hospital grants are pro-rated on a provincial per-capita basis. The resulting figures are therefore considered an approximation.

"Tale Of The Lucky Bullet" Wins Second Place In Tall Tales Contest

By ALBERTINE PLAMONDON

Miss Albertine Plamondon was one of two winners of $5 second prizes offered in the recent Tall Tales Contest run in 22 Sun Publishing Co. Ltd. weekly newspapers. Next week the first of five entries which earned $1 each will be published.

Tale of the Lucky Bullet

This fine day I decided I would go deer hunting with my new gun. After a long search and no luck for deer, I started target shooting at different objects, not noticing where I was going.

At dusk, I found myself on unfamiliar ground, and very hungry. Realizing I was really lost I climbed a tree and lay there all night, dozing off and on. I awoke next morning with a very empty stomach and decided I would shoot small game to cook for at least one meal.

Digging into my pockets I realized I had only one bullet left. Well, I started walking again, ready to shoot my last bullet at any small game I saw.

Presently I found myself beside a lake and spied some ducks flying over head. I raised my gun and shot.

Three big ducks came hurtling down and one hit a big branch on a tree breaking it off. Luck was with me, for lying under the tree was a sleeping moose.

The branch hit him fair and square on the head, causing him to kick and die. I was in the path of that kick and I went sailing right into that big lake.

I dragged myself out, finding to my surprise, fish had swam into my pockets.

You can imagine the feast I had with duck soup, moose meat and fish for desert.

Library Operation Explained By Supervisor

A meeting was held in the town offices Wednesday, March 19, when E. J. Holmgren, supervisor of public libraries, under the department of economic affairs was present to explain many questions relating to the operation and management of public libraries. Mayor Steve Hamar acted as chairman of the meeting, and although attendance was small, members of the Women's Institute and O. Ellis, who has been acting at librarian for the local W. I. library, showed keen interest, as did members of town council who were present.

Mrs. E. Joncas gave a brief history of the library from the time it was founded up to the present time. In her report, she declared that the library had grown until it has now become too large to be handled by volunteer help. Mr. Holmgren explained some of the provisions of the public libraries act, pointing out that a municipal library could be formed by one tenth of the ratepayers petitioning the council for such a scheme. He said that no grants were paid by the government for capital expenditure for libraries. When asked if it would be mandatory that a trained librarian be in charge of a municipal library, Mr. Holmgren said it is difficult for the larger centers to secure the services of trained librarians, as only two library schools are in existence in Canada, and both are located in the east.

Mr. Holmgren was impressed with the large number of books on the shelves of the local library, and with the large volume of work being done by the ladies of the Women's Institute. It is expected that the library problem will receive more thought and study in the next few weeks in an endeavour to maintain and expand the good work that the hard working, public spirited ladies of the Women's Institute have so ably handled through the years.

The winners in the citizens' event were: first Andy Kostiuk rink, juice set; second Nick Gordichuk rink, ash trays.

Premier Says Public Fed False Propaganda

EDMONTON (BUP)— Premier Ernest Manning has continued the Social Credit 23-year-old fight with the press by charging Edmonton and Calgary daily newspapers with printing "biased editorials and slanted news stories."

The first of a series of radio broadcasts entitled "These are the Facts", Alberta's 49-year-old chief executive last night declared it was a crying shame that instead of facts, the public was constantly fed "inaccurate and often completely false propaganda by men with some axe to grind and by newspapers which make a mockery of the vaunted freedom of the press by their readiness to let bias override their responsibility to provide authentic public information."

Manning said Albertans outgrew and threw overboard the "antiquated orthodoxy of the old-line parties 37 years ago. He added his Social Credit administration had made advances which place Alberta so far ahead of the rest of Canada there was little or no comparison.

Candidates Air Their Political Views

(Editor's Note: For the information of our readers, and so that all candidates would have the opportunity of expressing their views, we arranged this "Political Battle Page." All candidates in this constituency were invited to contribute an article. Opinions expressed are the opinions of the candidates themselves, and are not necessarily the views of this paper.)

Farm Position Worse Says Baron

Our farmers are asking for parity prices. Instead, the farm position has become worse under both Liberals and Conservatives. For example, a combine costing 1756 bushels of wheat in 1945 now costs 3,723 bushels.

Since farmers are about 13.6% of the population, they ask 13.6% of the national income instead of the 5% they are now getting. This is reasonable in view of their heavy investments, their high risks, and the many skills they require.

NICK BARON
C.C.F. Athabasca

Our C.C.F. members were able to get some improvements written into the recent Agricultural Price Stabilization bill. But with grains excluded, and floor prices at 80% of inadequate past prices, the farmer faces future income of possibly 64% of parity.

If the farmers' slice of the national income pie is to be increased, someone else must take less. Who shall this be?

The wage earner cannot take less. Even with unprecedentd consumer debt, the labour and small business incomes are not enough to buy up the products which now glut the markets.

But 1957 industrial profits were the highest of all time. And the peak prices now being maintained on machinery, oil, cars, trucks, food and other consumers' goods cannot be blamed on wage increases. For example, when a union recently won $34 million increased wages from a steel company, the company raised its price so as to take in an additional $95 million.

Obviously we need a government which will curb this monoply price-fixing. Only the C.C.F. members in the House of Commons have taken such a position.

The fact is that some 200 industrialists and financiers have tight control over our economy through a system of inter-locking directorates.

As a C.C.F. candidate, I represent the only party whose farm program was made by farmers. If elected I would work with the C.C.F. M.P.s for this legislation for you. Only the C.C.F. can and will do that, because only the C.C.F. owes no election debt to Big Business.

Every C.C.F. member of Parliament will work for

(1) a real parity prices program for farmers,

(2) for deficiency payments,

(3) for reduction of costs of the things we all must buy, through control of monoply business,

(4) for the raising of income tax exemptions for the average man,

(5) for disposal of our surpluses by increased trade with all parts of the world, and by increased aid to the underfed half of the world's population,

(6) for a real pension plan which will give everyone the opportunity of a decent income when they retire,

(7) for a full hospital and medical health insurance plan.

The C.C.F. is the people's program, and C.C.F. M.P.s are the people's servants.

CCF Looks To Election For More Votes

EDMONTON (BUP) — Veteran Alberta Socialist, William Irvine, the CCF candidate in Wetaskiwin, is sure that his party's popular vote will be increased in the forthcoming election in oil-rich Alberta.

Irvine, who was an MP back in the 1920's, declined to predict on the CCF chance of electing a member in the province. We are hopeful. He did say the CCF would pick up seats in both Ontario and British Columbia in the March election.

The Socialist said he felt that the forums, organized by the Farmer's Union, at which all candidates had a chance to speak, were excellent. They are very fair and prevent too much nonsense.

PROBE SLATED FOR APRIL

EDMONTON (BUP) — Public hearings by the Alberta royal commission on education will begin in Edmonton April 21.

Senator Donald Cameron is the chairman of the six-man probe. The commission secretary, Dr. Robert Rees says hearings will be held across the province during May and June.

JOHN RENAUD
Liberal, Athabasca.

Liberal Says Vote For Stable Gov't

After March 31 there will be a Liberal or a Conservative government in Ottawa. If you vote for Social Credit or C.C.F. you will encourage unstable, minority government. Why not register a positive vote.

The Liberal party stands behind the Pearson Plan. Taxes would be reduced by $400 milion a year and additional expenses made of $100 million a year.

Family allowances would be continued to the age of 18 for boys and girls who are students. Old age assistance would start at age 60 instead of 65, to widows and unmarried women. Sickness insurance would pay benefits to people who are not able to work because of illness.

Farmers would be assured definite price supports, higher than last year, for wheat, oats, barley, rye, flax and butter. Payment would be made for wheat stored on the farm.

More assistance would be provided for Education, Municipal and Highway programs. Trade would be expanded.

Some people say that this is a big change for the Liberal party. It is, but conditions today are also different than a year ago. When times were good the Liberals reduced the national debt by $2½ billions. Now, in times of emergency, they are prepared to increase the debt to get the economy rolling again. It is still sound economic policy.

In Athabasca constituency, the voters have supported the Liberals for many years. As the Liberal candidate, I, J. P. Renaud, a hardware store owner of Westlock and a resident of the constituency for 31 years, feel well qualified to represent this farming constituency.

I was raised on a farm until 18 years of age and owned one in the Westlock district for 20 years. My business has depended on the farm trade and I have a knowledge of public affairs having been 8 years on the Westlock School Board, 9 years councillor of the town of Westlock and the Mayor of Westlock for the past 2 years.

Use your vote wisely. Vote Liberal.

Liberal Organizer Rings "Death Knell" For Socreds

EDMONTON (BUP) — Andre Dechene, Alberta Liberal organizer, said that the March 31st general election will be "the death knell of the Social Credit."

Dechene declared that the Liberals had fielded a complete list of candidates in this province. He said candidates were optimistic about their chances. He explained that the evidence Tory resurgence in Alberta appeared to be chiefly at the expense of the Social Credit. He said he was confident that "a number of riding would elect Liberals as a result." The Liberals, although they only won one seat in Alberta last June, came second in eleven others. The province returns 17 members to the Commons.

Dechene said the Liberals "best prospects" were in Athabasca (held by retiring Liberal Joseph Dechene, 78, in the last house); Acadia, where the SC sitting member has retired and Jasper-Edson, where Lester Pearson's former secretary, Dale Thompson, is the party's nominee.

The Liberals say their chances are good in both Edmonton-Strathcona and Vegreville, which were lost to the Socred last election. Dick Hanna, former MP, is the candidate in the city riding. The Vegreville contest, Dechene believes, will be a struggle between Tory Frank Fane and Liberal Jake Ruhl.

Party officials believe the popular vote in Alberta will be increased. Liberal candidates last June polled close to 115,000 votes—about the same as Conservative nominees — compared to 154,000 ballots collected by the Social Credit party.

Disappearing Spouse Is Remanded

CALGARY (BUP)— Earl MacMillan of Medicine Hat, who was the object of a wide search last month when he disappeared from his home before he was arrested in Vancouver, has been remanded until March 24 when he appeared in Calgary police court.

MacMillan, who was the first Canadian soldier to bring home a Korean war bride, is charged with causing public mischief. He entered no plea in court.

U.S. Takes Long Look At Our Election

NEW YORK — The Wall Street Journal has published about the most comprehensive review of the Canadian election campaign yet seen in the United States.

Written from Ottawa by Henry Gemmill and A. J. McKenna, the 4,000 - word piece was headlined "Northern Chill" and said the Canadian hustings are ringing with talk of United States government and business.

It reviewed virtually every outstanding economic political dispute between the United States and Canada, weighed the attitudes of Prime Minister Diefenbaker and Liberal party leader Lester Pearson toward each. The article also takes up the importance of Canada to American defence and the proposal of ex-Mayor Charlotte Whitton of Ottawa that Canada bargain with the U.S. on the basis of defence for trade. Ottawa officials are quoted as saying of Miss Whitton's proposal "How irresponsible can you get?"

However, the writers take very seriously Prime Minister Diefenbaker's demand that if Americans want Canadian iron ore, they concentrate it in Canada or even turn it into pig iron in Canada. It recalls that Canada similarly compelled Americans to buy finishing paper and cut lumber from Canada instead of logs —thus providing jobs for many Canadians.

The writers avoid predicting the outcome of the Canadian election, but they devote by far the greater part of it to the arguments of the Progressive Conservatives, which may mean they think the Tories are out in front.

They quote Canadians who want to take retaliatory action against the United States because of Canada's grievances, such as cutting off purchases of Florida and Texas citrus fruits. Then they quote government officials, who say that would only lead to a U.S. retaliation on Canadian fish.

Nevertheless, the Wall Street Journal warns Americans business that the revolt of the Canadians against being taken for granted and taken for a ride by the United States is really big and the election is showing it.

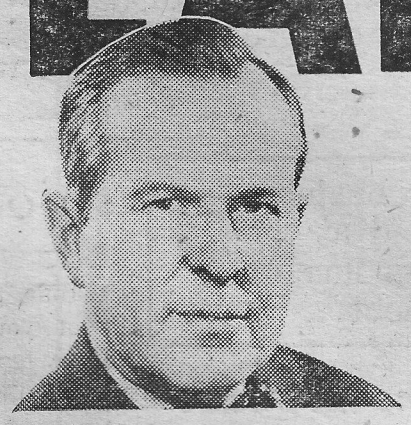
PEARSON PLAN



TO RAISE FARM INCOME • CREATE MARKETS BUILD TRADE

Here are some of the ways the Liberals will work to bring farmers a fuller, fairer, share of the nation's income now, open up markets to assure healthy future growth . . .

- Put more money in people's pockets, more people back at work to stimulate heavier buying, readier buying of farm products by Canadian customers now.
- Set trade policies to expand markets; win new customers not drive old ones away.
- Extend price supports on wheat, oats, barley, rye, flax, butter—pay cost of surplus grain storage on farms to put extra cash in the farmers' hands.
- Launch rural housing program, provide tax credits on new storage buildings to aid farm and home development.
- Provide low-cost long-term credit for land and permanent improvements, medium-term credit for livestock, machinery and other purchases through new Farm Development Bank.
- Establish new Export Bank to speed up, open up sales in foreign markets.
- Promote fuller, freer trade between North Atlantic Nations, including Britain and United States.
- Increase Canada's food shipments to needy or undeveloped countries...work with United States and others to establish fair and orderly disposal of surplus crops in world markets.

Stop the present policy of drift, of inadequate measures to meet the farmer's urgent and growing problems.

Mrs. Maccagno, Wife Of M.L.A., Reports On Legislature Opening

The regular monthly meeting of the Lac la Biche Women's Institute was held March 18 at the home of Mrs. F. McMillan. Twenty-one members and three guests were present. The ladies decided to hold a bingo in the Aurora Theatre as soon as a date could be arranged for the last of April or early May. Mrs. W. Hamilton, Mrs. J. Zaluzny and Mrs. T. Mastaler are the committee to purchase the prizes. Other members will assist with the bingo.

A bake sale will be held in the 5 cent to $1 store March 22. Mrs. S. Hamar is to go as a delegate to the Convention to be held March 26-27.

In the Library report given by Mrs. McMillan, she announced that a grant of $300.00 had been received from the government to purchase books. The library is now open Friday mornings as well as afternoons.

A most interesting account of the opening of the Provincial Legislature was given by Mrs. Maccagno, wife of the local M.L.A. who had been present at the opening ceremonies. Modeling the costume she wore at the colorful event, Mrs. Maccagno made a charming picture in the powder blue silk dress cut on princess lines, featuring a bow on the left side, and a blue cloche hat modelled by Nadelle, Montreal, in the same shade as her dress. Her accessories were navy and white.

Mrs. Maccagno, very graphically described the scene in the Legislative Chamber during the opening ceremonies, and the reception given by Mrs. Manning, wife of the Premier, which followed. Numerous social functions were held for the wives of the members, including a tea at the home of Mrs. Mooney, daughter of Leiut. Governor Bowlen. A tour of the new City Hall was enjoyed when the ladies were personally greeted by Mayor Hawrelak. Mrs. Maccagno was also a guest at a tea at the home of Mrs. J. Harper Prowse.

At the conclusion of her remarks Mrs. Maccagno presented the W.I. Library with a copy of the book, "Eye Opener Bob", the story of Bob Edwards, written and autographed by Grant McEwan, well known author, and Liberal M.L.A. from Calgary.

Mrs Maccagno displayed several interesting pictures and articles, including the invitations issued for the reception at the legislative buildings, and a calendar in Cree, designed by Father Laverte of the Lac la Biche Mission, which Mr. Maccagno had printed and presented to the legislative archives, and one to each M.L.A. The ladies all showed their appreciation by a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Maccagno.

Other items of business discussed were a tentative date for the W.I. Conference which is to be held in Lac la Biche the coming summer. After some discussion, the secretary was asked to write to the Department of Civil Defence for information regarding a First Aid and Home Nursing Course for women, under the auspices of the St. John's Ambulance Corps.

The evening concluded with lunch served by Mrs. McMillan and Mrs. Coast. The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Marshall Hamar, with Mrs. J. Zaluzny co-hostess.

When the Canadian Red Cross canvasser calls at your door—remember—he is a volunteer and is giving his time to the Canadian Red Cross. Give generously—you serve by giving.

Someone has said:

that the greatest problem confronting the Liberals and the Conservatives, is to prove to the people of Canada that there is a difference!

They both promise to increase services and at the same time reduce taxes.

Can you, in your own business increase spending and at the same time reduce your income without going into debt? ?
